

The California Department of Fish & Game

Invites you to take the Open Statewide Examination

for FISH AND GAME WARDEN (FOR CURRENT PEACE OFFICERS ONLY)

FINAL FILING DATE – OCTOBER 6, 2006 (Application must be postmarked by this date)

Why not work to benefit California's environment?

Want to work with dedicated people who value and enjoy their work?

Our employees are committed to managing and protecting California's diverse wildlife and the habitats upon which they depend. Join us and begin a meaningful new career. About the State Examination & Hiring Process: The first step in the State hiring process requires you to take a competitive examination for each separate permanent job classification. Examinations may be written, interview, or performance-based and are designed to test the knowledge and abilities required for the classification. After you take and pass a State examination, you are ranked and placed on an employment list for that classification. Once you are placed on the employment list, you can apply for job openings in that classification. For more information on the State examination and hiring process, visit our website at <http://www.dfg.ca.gov/hrb/pages/jobswithdfg.htm>.

POSITION INFORMATION

Duties:

This is the first working and journey level of the series. Under general supervision, incumbents perform patrol and investigative duties and may be assigned a geographic area; enforce laws relating to fish and wildlife conservation; issue citations; make arrests; collect evidence and complete crime reports; testify in court; investigate reported fish and game violations; perform patrol duties aboard a fish and game vessel; respond to and investigate pollution, oil, and hazardous material spills; act as Incident Commander in minor oil and hazardous material spills; explain the Department's programs before groups; work as field training officers (FTOs); and assist other law enforcement agencies. Incumbents may be assigned special administrative assignments performing the less difficult analysis and staff work such as the initial review of a legislative bill analysis.

A Fish and Game Warden is a State of California sworn Peace Officer, who is required to carry and use a firearm as part of his/her job. The warden will participate in a five-week training program covering firearms/defensive tactics, policies, procedures, Department of Fish and Game related laws and regulations, and fish and game specific enforcement issues. After completing the five-week training, the warden will begin a 13-week field training program. Upon completion of this training, the warden will begin work as a solo warden in his/her assigned position. Participants who fail to complete the required training will be rejected during their one-year probationary period.

Salary Range:

Range A - $3,094-$3,691 – This range shall apply to incumbents who do not meet the criteria for payment in Range B.

Range B - $3,691-$4,432 This range shall apply to those persons: (1) who have satisfactorily completed the equivalent of 24 months of Range A; or (2) who have received a Baccalaureate Degree in Law Enforcement or the biological sciences or a closely related field and who have satisfactorily completed two years of full-time paid law enforcement or technical fish and wildlife experience; or (3) who have two years (60 semester units) of college with a concentration in law enforcement or the biological sciences or a closely related field and who have satisfactorily completed four years of full-time paid law enforcement or technical fish and wildlife experience. Alternate range criteria cannot be combined for movement from Range A to Range B.

In addition to salary, Fish and Game Wardens can receive additional pay differentials as listed below:

Disqualification: Existing law provides that persons convicted of a felony or convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence are disqualified from employment as peace officers. Such persons are not eligible to compete for or be appointed to positions in these classes.

You are disqualified from being employed as a peace officer under Government Code 1029 if (1) you have been convicted of a felony in this State or any other state; (2) you have been convicted of any offense in any other state which would have been a felony if committed in this State; (3) you have been charged with a felony and adjudged by a superior court to be mentally incompetent; (4) you have been found not guilty by reason of insanity of any felony; (5) you have been determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender; or (6) you have been addicted or in danger of becoming addicted to narcotics, convicted, and committed to a State institution.

You are disqualified from being employed as a peace officer under the Gun Control Act (GCA) of 1968 as amended by the Federal Omnibus Consolidated Appropriations Act of 1997, which makes it unlawful for any person convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence to ship, transport, possess, or receive firearms or ammunition. A misdemeanor crime of domestic violence means an offense that (1) is a misdemeanor under Federal or State law; and (2) has, as an element, the use or attempted use of physical force, or the threatened use of a deadly weapon, committed by a current or former spouse, parent, or guardian of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabiting with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse, parent, or guardian, or by a person similarly situated to a spouse, parent, or guardian of the victim. This definition includes all misdemeanors that involve the use or attempted use of physical force and is true whether or not the State statute or local ordinance specifically defines the offense as a domestic violence misdemeanor.

Use of "hard" drugs (e.g., heroin, cocaine, or hallucinogenic) subsequent to applicant's 18th birthday and prior to his or her twenty-third birthday, shall be grounds for disqualification from the examination unless 5 years elapsed from the date of the disclosed or revealed use of the drug. If any such disclosed or revealed use has occurred on or after the applicant's twenty-third birthday, he or she shall be disqualified from the examination in which he or she is competing until 10 years have elapsed from the date of the disclosed or revealed use. The disqualification period shall begin on the date that the drug was used, and not on the date that the drug use was disclosed or revealed.

Citizenship Requirement: Pursuant to Government Code Section 1031(a), in order to be a peace officer, a person must be either a U.S. citizen or a permanent resident alien who is eligible for and has applied for U.S. citizenship. Denial of an application for citizenship shall result in termination of employment.

Application for Examination Information: In completing Item 11 of the Application for Examination, you may answer "NO" to the question "Have you ever been convicted by any court of a felony?" if (1) the record of such an incident has been sealed in accordance with Penal Code sections 851.7, 851.8, 1000.5, 1203.45; or (2) the record of such an incident has been expunged or is expugnable pursuant to Health and Safety Code Section 11361.5, which pertains to various marijuana offenses; or (3) the conviction was under Health and Safety Code Section 11557 or its successor 11366 when that conviction was stipulated or designated to be a lesser included offense of the offense of possession of marijuana. However, you must list the conviction if you have received a release (per Section 1203.4 or 1203.4a of the Penal Code or Welfare and Institutions Code 1172 or 1179) or a pardon (per Section 4852.16 of the Penal Code).
